

Colorado-Utah / Dinosaur NM

Harper's Corner

DISTANCE: 3 miles

ELEVATION GAIN: wenig

ROUTE TYPE: Out & Back

Length

1.5 miles one way / 3.0 miles round trip. Not a loop.

Level of Difficulty

Moderate

Trailhead Location

End of the Harpers Corner Road, 31 miles north of the Canyon Visitor Center

Your Safety

Be prepared for desert hiking: Take a hat, sunscreen, and water. A minimum of 2 quarts of water per person is recommended in the summer

Let someone know where you are going and when you are due back

Wear comfortable shoes, such as hiking boots or athletic shoes. Open-toed shoes are not recommended

Use caution near cliffs. Keep close tabs on small children

Keep an eye out of thunderstorms during the summer

Trail Brochure

Available at the trailhead and at the monument visitor centers

Rules and Regulations

Pets are not allowed on this trail or in the monument's backcountry

Carry out all trash

Collecting artifacts, fossils, plants, or other objects is prohibited

Do not feed or approach wildlife

Description

Trail starts with a short descent but is then fairly level with a few moderate ups and downs. The end of the trail features an overlook with sweeping views of the river canyons with the Green River 2,500 feet (762 meters) below. The National Geographic Trails Illustrated map of Dinosaur National Monument is available from the park bookstore.